Connecting young people with a Christian youth worker
via their local church in partnership with YOUTH for CHRIST

The thriving explorers group in Balsham meet for food, fun and Bible study once a month led by 5 adults

An after-school drop-in café continues in Whittlesford URC with ARK extra monthly group

St Mary's Sawston lead groups with other churches, and the town's Brigades

Hinkledux parents join a parallel session to discuss similar issues to the young people ...so they can continue conversations at home.

supported by Granta Deanery churches

Why does God allow suffering?

Across Granta Deanery ministry teams and volunteers are engaging in exciting conversations with young people, finding that, as well as playing games and sharing food they have lots of questions.

'YOUTH STARTS @9!

Who was Jesus? and how is he relevant to me?

What does the Bible say about being angry?

Youthinc funds access to resources from Urban Saints to equip and inspire leaders and volunteers when they explore answers together

DO YOU KNOW ANYONE THAT CAN HELP US?

Felicity has moved on to pastures (and rivers) new. So, with our partners Cambridge Youth For Christ

We are on the look out for a Youth & Children's Worker.
